Project Sample

Include a project sample that showcases an important piece of work you completed in high school. This could be a research project, a group assignment highlighting your individual contributions, a lab report, or any other project that demonstrates your ability to apply theoretical knowledge to practical situations.

Example: In my final year of high school, I participated in a research project called Classical Mechanics: The Foundations of Motion. In this project, we focused on Isaac Newton's laws and their impact on the understanding of motion, gravity, and their applications to mechanics.

Here is the file of my final project:

Writing Sample

Insert here a writing sample which demonstrates your ability to communicate effectively in written form. This could be an essay, research paper, report, or any other written assignment that highlights your analytical and writing skills.

Example:

In my senior year at high school, I wrote an essay that I am really proud of. It was an analysis of a book by Machado de Assis. See below.

Extracurricular Activities (if you have any)

Demonstrate any involvement in extracurricular activities such as sports, music, volunteer work, part-time jobs, or others. Provide details and evidence such as pictures, videos and certificates of your extracurricular activities and achievements.

Example:

I am a competitive swimmer and have been practicing the sport since I was 12. Over the years, I have competed in several regional and national competitions, and one of my proudest achievements was winning a gold medal in the 100-meter freestyle at the state championship. See below for some pictures.

OTHER OPTIONAL MATERIAL

Submit up to three recommendation letters from teachers, counselors, or mentors who can speak to your academic abilities, character, and potential.

Write a motivation letter, in 750 words maximum, outlining the reasons why the program aligns with your aspirations. Also highlight personal qualities and experiences that make you a strong candidate. You are allowed to use AI to help you write it, but having that said, be very specific of your own motivations with examples and stories.

Example:

For my engagement at high school, my math teacher wrote a recommendation letter on my behalf. See below.
